The volunteer will be integrated into the teaching teams and the international office and will have the opportunity to develop the following :

- Implementation of cultural projects and participation in class projects in collaboration with the team, according to needs and interests
- Support for mobility projects with the tutor in charge of international relations (presentations, English workshops, etc.)
- Involvement in promoting Erasmus+ and European Solidarity Corps programs
- Organization of activities and academic support for primary and middle school students
- Participation in school trips and outings

All new ideas are welcome, and possibility to propose activities with the other volunteers !

This is for you if you like to work with children and students, and if you are organized.

INFO JEUNES LORIENT

01 October 2025 / 28 June 2026 - Youth information and media

The mission takes place in Lorient Youth Information Center, an association that provides information to youth on various topics. The volunteer will integrate the employees and french volunteers team to support the international sector.

It will consist in :

- Produce ressources for the international sector (about ESC, country culture...)
- Create media supports and communicate on social media/website
- Provide support to young people willing to participate in the ESC program (give information and advice...)
- Participate in the promotion of European citizenship and international mobility, in particular ESC volunteering, through information workshops and events, in the structure or in schools/youth structures
- Animate a linguistic café
- Contribute to the activities of the association and to the organization/animation of events : international festival, job fair, Café des Globe-Trotters, etc. According to their interest, the volunteer can participate in some activities and collaborate with the french volunteers on subjects that are not linked to international and european mobility.

The volunteer can be force of proposal.

We are looking for someone curious and sociable.

RÉSIDENCE LES GRANDS LARGES

01 October 2025 / 28 June 2026 - Youth sustainable development awareness

Les Grands Larges residence welcomes young people aged 16 to 30 and aims to socialize young people through housing. The actions are driven by two important vocations : sustainable development awareness and the link between generations.

Within the structure and with the animation team, the volunteer will participate in various activities, with 2 working evenings/week.

- Implementation of actions to raise awareness among young people about sustainable development (sorting of waste in housing, responsible consumption, soft mobility, energy savings, responsible food, environmental contamination...)

This theme will represent the main topic of the mission.

The volunteer will also have the opportunity to develop individual and collective projects according to their interests :

- Cuisine workshops
- Cultural discoveries (sharing their own culture will also be an important part of the mission)
- Thematic evenings
- Exhibitions
- Creation of digital media, communication through social networks (ex : tiktok : @agoraservices)
- Promotion of international mobility
- European citizenship awareness
- Link between generations

Just bring your motivation, any skills you have, and cultural contribution !

If you are interested in social themes and sharing your culture, and be part of an animation team, this mission is for you.

ABOUT THE CITY – LORIENT

Lorient is a city of 57 000 inhabitants, situated in the western part of France, in the Brittany region. This region has its own language called Breton (but don't worry, you don't need to know this language to come !). In general, there is a strong cultural identity and there is a good atmosphere. Because Lorient is a city near the sea, the weather can change quickly and be rainy. However, you can appreciate it under every conditions. You can easily visit the region and the country !

Over here !

ACCOMODATION

You will be living in a flat with other volunteers, close to the city center.

You will have your own bedroom in the shared flat.

MENTORING/COORDINATION

In each structure, you will have a mentor. Info Jeunes Lorient is a host organization for one mission, but also the coordinating organization for all missions in Lorient which means you will be in contact with us anyway.

Welcome !

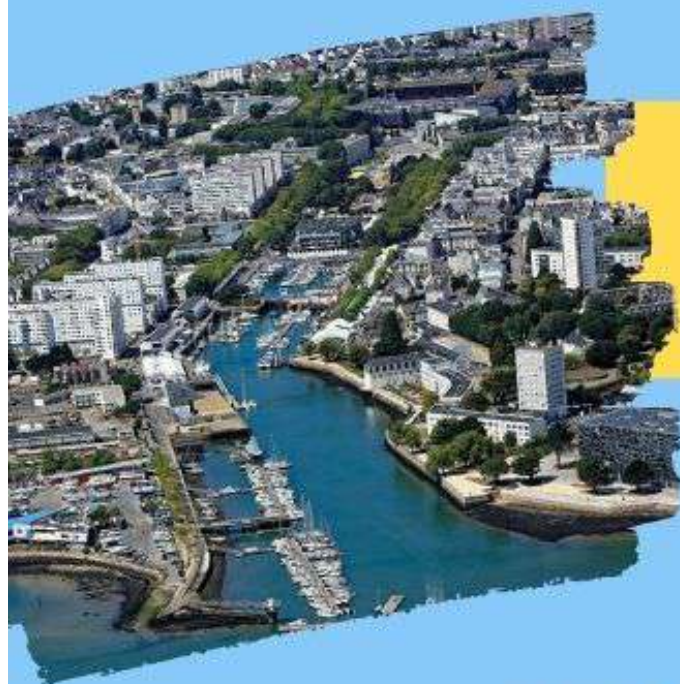

Bienvenue !
