1 volunteer position

WELCOME

Dansk ICYE is a non-profit organization working with international exchange, intercultural learning, and long-term mobility programmes. We coordinate both ESC and ICYE exchanges, hosting volunteers in Denmark and sending Danish participants abroad.

As a volunteer, you will join the daily work of the national office and gain insight into international youth exchange, project coordination, and NGO administration.

The office environment is friendly, international, and youth-focused, with English as the main working language.

WHAT WE DO

Dansk ICYE's mission is to promote:

- Intercultural understanding
- International youth mobility
- Non-formal learning
- Global citizenship
- Community involvement

We support young people before, during, and after their exchange experience through:

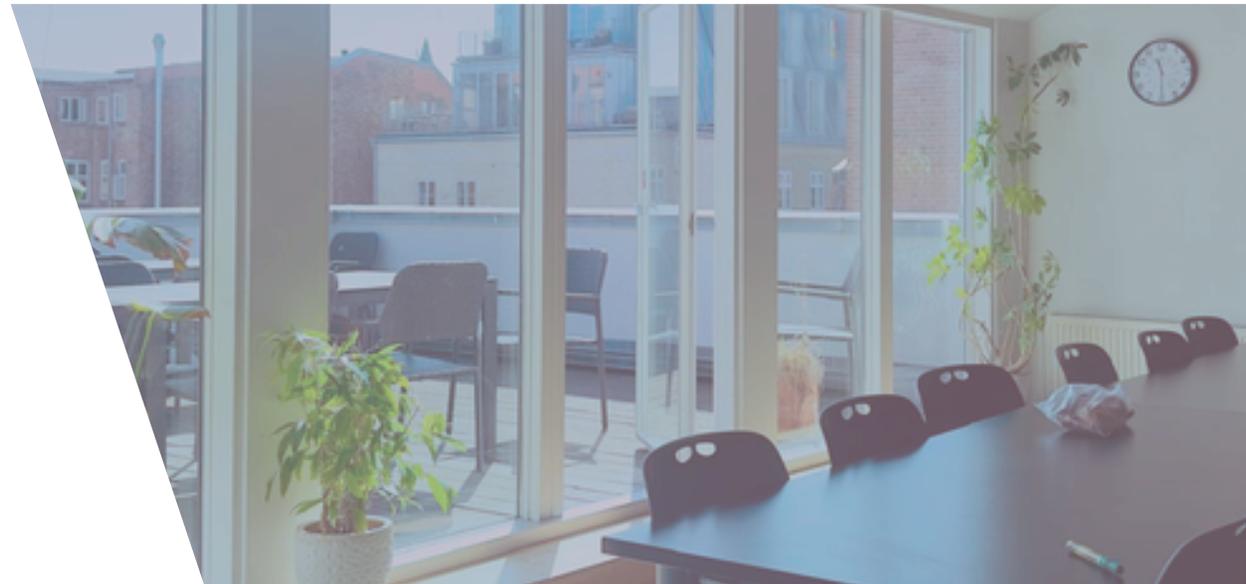

- Training courses
- Camps and workshops
- Mentorship
- Ongoing support and guidance
- Social activities and community events

The volunteer plays an important role in connecting exchange participants with the national office and helping maintain a strong sense of community.

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

Volunteers must be:

- 23+ years old (required)
- Fluent in spoken and written English
- Extroverted, open-minded, social, and proactive
- Responsible, organized, and reliable
- Empathic and respectful in communication
- Comfortable taking initiative and sharing ideas
- Interested in international cooperation, youth mobility, and NGO work
- Down-to-earth in solving problems and working with people
- Interested and experienced in social media and communication

YOUR ROLE AS A VOLUNTEER

The volunteer will become part of the office team and work both independently and together with staff and engaged co-workers.

- Staying in touch with hosted volunteers together with the Danish co-workers
- Sharing updates about social events, camps, and activities

Support for exchange participants

- Helping volunteers navigate life in Denmark
- Motivating them to join community activities
- Supporting them with practical and social questions

Planning and participating in camps & events

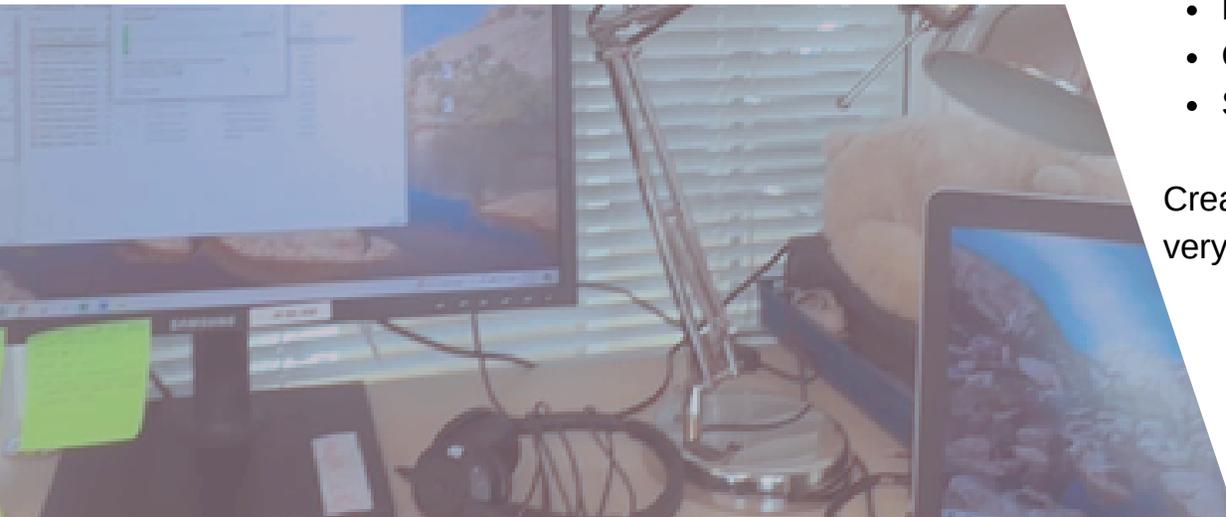

- Helping design workshops or creative sessions during four annual training camps
- Participating in meetings, trainings, and national events
- Developing new activity ideas together with the team

IT & OFFICE SKILLS

Volunteers should be comfortable using:

- Microsoft Word
- Excel
- PowerPoint
- Canva - CapCut
- Social Media Platforms (IG, TikTok, Facebook)

Creativity, design interest, or multimedia skills are very welcome.

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

- Working language: English
- Schedule: Weekdays, with occasional weekend activities (camps, events)
- Housing: Shared apartment (2 persons) near the city centre. Volunteer will be provided with a bike.
- Location: Aarhus, Denmark

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN

During your stay, you will learn about:

- Management of international mobility programmes
- ESC and ICYE structures, procedures, and values
- Office administration and organizational work
- Communication strategy and social media
- Facilitation of workshops and youth activities
- Intercultural learning and global citizenship
- Networking with volunteers, NGOs, and youth groups

You will also develop:

- Teamwork and leadership skills
- A deeper understanding of Danish work culture

This is an excellent placement for volunteers interested in international cooperation, communication, youth work, or NGO.
